We treasure the memories of our school life and realize that they will become more priceless to us through the years. Perhaps through the pages of this volume of the Pioneer, we can portray to others and can keep for ourselves some of our cherished memories. We present it not as a literary product, but simply as a picture of happy years in Nebo High School.

It is our wish that the joy received from this book in later years will repay us for our efforts toward making it a success.

DEDICATION

For her faithfulness and kindness shown to us during our intellectual growth thus far---for giving her time and energy so willingly to each of us---for the unselfish way in which she gave every moment she could spare to help with our Junior-Senior Banquet---for her many efforts these last two years to make our class outstanding---we, the Senior Class of 1954, dedicate this sixth volume of "The Pioneer" to our class sponsor, MISS ROSE L. STACY.

MESSAGE TO SENIORS

In the course of these past four years it has been a wonderful experience for me to work with such fine young people. I sincerely hope that we here at school have contributed something of educational, spiritual, and moral value to such a fine group as this graduating class of 1954. In the years to follow let it be known that you have attempted to achieve a better understanding of your fellow man, as a result of pursuing educational opportunities that many have passed by.

You now are setting upon a course of study for the continued improvement of your life. Let the small "fire" of knowledge you have obtained at Nebo High School burn bright, warm, and long to carry you further into the richness and greatness of better things.

I sincerely hope that in your travels you will keep in mind the sincere efforts we have made in trying to aid you to serve mankind better. Let your efforts now be stimulated by your knowledge of the past.

CLASS POEM

CLASS COLOR

As we, the seniors, have to go,
Our thoughts go back to long ago,
Of happy times we all did share;
We realize now how much we care.

As others follow in our footsteps here
To do the tasks we still hold dear,
To labor at the work we leave behind,
Much happiness we hope they find.

Now that our life has just begun,
We've a job that must be done;
We'll face the future for others' sake
To make the world a better place.

Not forgetting the things we've been taught
By Nebo teachers, and the joy they brought.
Scenes may change as the years go by,
But we'll never forget Old Nebo High.

CLASS HISTORY

The most difficult of all our school years was the first year in high school. It was not only because we were shy, but we were scared to begin a different kind of school life and meet new friends. The persons to whom we give credit for helping us through the hardest part were Miss Buckner, who was our home room teacher, and Mr. Brown, the principal. I know it was a hard road for them because it was all we could do to get through ourselves.

The number of students enrolled in our Freshman year was thirty-six. We were a very happy group the last day of that school year when we found we had managed to escape from having to stay a Freshman another year.

Our class had decreased from thirty-six to twenty-four students in our Sophomore year, but that number seemed to be enough to fill the science room. Mr. Dugger was our adviser that year. We really began to enjoy coming to school then, because there were so many activities in which we could participate.

The most enjoyable of these activities were those of the Beta Club. We had great fun initiating Helen Toney, Lilla B. Jenkins and Miriam Wilson. It was great fun to watch them bow to some person every fifteen minutes. Other members of our class who have joined the Beta Club are Sue Jarrett and Cloe Peters.

When we think of class parties we always think of hay rides, which usually ended in car rides. Those were really the good old days, especially the great fun we would have trying to see who could eat the most hot dogs, or drink the most Pepsi Colas.

Then came our Junior year that had in store for us great times. We recall our Junior play "Gallopig Ghosts" which was filled with thrills and horrors. We will never forget the precious hours we spent practicing it. All the credit does not go to Juniors for the great performance of it, but to our director, Miss Rose Stacy.

The main highlight of that year was the Junior-Senior Banquet. The Hawaiian theme was complete with everything from pineapples to Hula Dancers. Everyone, even to the waitresses, were dressed "fit for a king."

We students look forward to the Senior year with its many activities, the most important one being the publication of the school newspaper "The Highlights". The greatest thrill we hope, will be taking the trip to Washington.

There are now only sixteen out of the thirty-six that started together in high school. Two new ones joined us in the twelfth grade, Joanne Jaynes from Glenwood and Libby Lauder milk from Marion, which makes eighteen that will graduate in the class of 1954.

These last four years have been the best years of our lives; there are so many events we will remember when we think back over our school days. Yet there are some things we will try to forget; such as Geometry Classes, but we appreciate Mr. Dixon's patience in trying to teach us.

We also want to thank the other members of the high school faculty, Mr. Brown, Mrs. Hauss, and Miss Stacy for guiding us through our Senior year.

With the continuance of our pleasant memories, we leave Nebo High School hoping we shall have as much happiness in the future as we have had in the past.

Miriam Wilson

CLASS PROPHECY

As I am now secretary to the governor of North Carolina, in this year of 1964, I make many business trips to the different parts of the U.S. On my most recent trips North I had the misfortune of getting my car torn up by none other than one of my old school mates, who told me he was now working for the "Hell Drivers." Because of a slight injury, I was taken to the famous Johns Hopkins hospital in Baltimore, Maryland. After being admitted there, I met a very nice looking nurse. I came to know that it was Joanne Jaynes. She is now a registered nurse.

I left the hospital wondering about my other class mates, what kind of work they were doing, and how the world in general was treating them.

Continuing on my journey, I arrived in Detroit, the motor city of the world. Passing by the General Motors Corporation, I saw Junior Turner and Howard Hollifield. They are now test drivers for G.M. In Detroit I saw Gene Browning, who deals with cars also; but he is a stock car driver and has just won the Indianapolis 500 mile race. The three boys invited me to have dinner with them, and said they would bring me up to date on some of the other members of the class.

They informed me that Lilla B. Jenkins, the most athletic girl in our class, is now playing professional basketball with the Arkansas Travelers. Also in the sports field is Opal Toney, who is swimming instructor at the University of Virginia. Cecil Bristol is an Electrical Engineering professor at the University of Virginia, too.

Leaving the boys I continued on my northern journey and arrived in New York just in time for the Jackie Gleason Show. At the show I learned that Libby Lauder-milk is a prominent member of the chorus and does very well the "Can-Can."

After the show I met Libby backstage in her dressing room. She told me that on their recent tours, she saw Cecile Frisbee and Helen Toney, who are now airline hostesses. She also saw Inez Finley, who is an Interior Decorator for the Waldorf Astoria Hotel. Roy Edwards, the brains of the class, is now a jet pilot.

I left New York and headed back for the Southland. In a little town outside of Virginia I saw Miriam Wilson, who is dietitian at the city hospital. She informed me that Howard Jamison owned a leading garage. Miriam told me that Cloe Peters and James Revis are partners in a big candy company. They remembered how we sold candy in school so that we could get money to go to Washington.

I returned to North Carolina and was satisfied to know that all my classmates had done well in their chosen profession.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the class of 1954 of the Nebo High School, do hereby make and declare this to be our last will and testament.

ARTICLE I

To the faculty we do give and bequeath the rest and residue of our estate, including our gratitude for their guidance and help, and our deep affection. We also leave them a large amount of sympathy for their depressing attempts to pound knowledge into our craniums.

ARTICLE II

To our Alma Mater we do render our thanks for the joys and sorrows of the past four years, and our tested and proved loyalty for all time.

ARTICLE III

To the Junior Class we bequeath our capacity for fun, our ability to giggle, our good times, our friendship, and our loyalty.

ARTICLE IV

Personal Bequests:

I, Gene Browning, leave my ability to get into everything that is hard to get out of, to Jimmy Gibbs.

I, Lilla B. Jenkins, leave these famous words to Frances Smith, "Get'em while you're young."

I, Roy Edwards, being in sound mind and body, hereby will my ability to stay out of school and go hunting to Charles Lewis.

I, Miriam Wilson, leave my ability to get along with Air Force men to Barbara Gentry.

I, Junior Turner, leave my ability to get along with the women to Donald Raines.

I, Cloe Peters, leave my ability to get along with college boys to Joanne Stacy.

I, Howard Jamison, leave to Lloyd Moody, woman trouble and the proverb "Live and learn; die and forget it all."

I, Sue Jarrett, leave my Superlative, "The Biggest Flirt," to Mary Ann Browning.

I, Jimmie Pyatt, leave to Dean Finley, my good luck while driving and bad luck with women.

I am leaving Nebo, though with great difficulty I have got hither; yet I do not repent me of all the trouble I have had to arrive where I am. My textbooks I leave to him that shall succeed me in my pilgrimage; my courage and skill to him that can get it; my marks and scars I carry with me to be a witness that I have been to Nebo. Cecil Bristol.

I, Opal Toney, leave my ability to read newspapers during Geometry class to Edith Finley.

I, Inez Finley, leave my ability to mispronounce French words to Sybil Farr.

I, James Revis, leave my position as a basketball player to Jimmy Gibbs.

I, Joanne Jaynes, leave my ability of talking in class to Devon Fender.

I, Helen Toney, leave my back seat in Reed's bus to Shirley Fox. Make sure you use it, Shirley.

I, Cecile Frisbee, leave all my memories of happy days gone by, to Arvella Fender.

I, Howard Hollifield, leave my ability to drive slightly fast to Jack Buff, who is coming along very well.

I, Libby Laudermilk, leave my hair style to anyone with enough nerve to use it.

We do hereby appoint the principal of the school sole executor of this our last will and testament.

In witness whereof, we attach the signatures of the class of 1954.

Libby Laudermilk, Testator.
